About Wolf Therapeutic

Wolf Therapeutic Community is my private practice on Wathaurong Country (Geelong). Since 2022 I have been offering high quality trauma and mental health care, neurodivergent affirming practice, and professional training and consultation.

My clinic space is built with trauma therapy in mind. It has plenty of natural light, two entry / exits, choice of seating, blankets, floor cushions, sensory adaptations, hot and cold drinks, music, and outdoor seating.

About Claudia

I am an Accredited Mental Health Social worker & yoga teacher, member of the queer community, and a late-identified neurodivergent mother. My loves include yoga, reformer pilates, bush walks, waterfalls, and trees.

I am tertiary qualified in Social Work, & Health Science, Mental Health & Alcohol and other Drugs, and a Graduate Certificate of Developmental Trauma.

I am an Accredited EMDR Clinician, as well as Advanced Clinical Resource Therapist & Trainer. I am registered as a Behaviour Support Practitioner with the NQSC and have training in Advanced ACT for Trauma Related Disorders & more.

Training and Consulting Services

I bring 15 years of clinical experience to consultation and supervision for social workers, those seeking AMHSW status, allied health professionals, Core NQSC behaviour support practitioners (affirming practice only) and case workers.

Please note I cannot offer Accredited EMDR Consultation.

With over 11 years training experience, I train small groups and large organisations in formal Advanced Parts Work, trauma informed practice, organisational trauma & neurodivergent affirming approaches
